LOUISVILLE BREATHE EASIER.

Flood Situation Improving But Many Families Are Homeless.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 30.—The cheering intelligence comes from above that the rivers are all falling and that by Wednesday morning the river here will be on a decline. The worst is over and it was well that it came just as it did for a couple of feet more would have put the muddy water over the embankment along the river front between the cut-off and the foot of First street. All the point would have been submerged and 500 families rendered homeless. Shipping, even now is under water and the people are going to and from their houses in boats.

Rear Admiral F. M. Ramsey, U. S. Navy.

Slight Earthquake Shocks.

FRANKLIN, Ky., March 30.—Two very distinct earthquake shocks were felt here Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock. Houses were shaken considerably and pictures trembled on the walls. No damage was done.

Earthquake shocks were felt all through Kentucky Tuesday. At Adairville the shock was severe and lasted for several minutes, the vibrations being from south to north. At Elkton the shock was not so great, but many big buildings were felt to shake and quiver. The shocks were felt between 7:30 and 8 o'clock.

The Outlook Encouraging.

MIDDLESBOROUGH, Ky., March 30.—One suspected case developed at the detention hospital Monday; four patients were released; cases remaining, 53. Situation continues to improve. Surgeon Wertenbaker expects to have everything in shape to raise the quarantine by the latter part of the week. Business is reviving rapidly.

Child Burned to Death.

STURGIS, Ky., March 30.—The three-year-old daughter of Chris. Heine, of Caseyville, was burned to death by her clothes catching fire from an open grate, where she was playing. No one was near, and when the other members of the family appeared a horrible sight met their eyes. She was literally burned to a crisp.

Sel Cochran Captured.

MAYFIELD, Ky., March 30.—Chief of Police McNutt is in receipt of a telegram from Hot Springs, Ark., announcing the capture of Rufus Franklin, alias Sel Cochran, wanted in Calhoun county for the murder of Noah Story and William Kelly a few years ago. A reward of $800 is offered for his capture.

Buyers Scarce at Sale of Trotters.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 30.—The Woodward & Shanklin spring sale of trotters began Tuesday. Seventy-seven head brought $8,780, an average of $114. The highest price realized was $480 for Egyptian; 2:15 by Membrino King. The attendance of buyers was not large and the stock of medium quality.

Mine Inspector Moving.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 30.—The work of removing the state mine inspector's office and the geological survey effects to Lexington in accordance with the recent legislative act, began Tuesday morning. There is no further rumor of any injunction to prevent the change.

Long Live Cuba.

VALPARAISO, Ind., March 30.—A thousand students of the Northern Indiana Normal school and the citizens, headed by the city band, paraded the principal streets of the city Tuesday night, carrying banners reading "Long live Cuba," and "Down with Spain," and an effigy labeled Premier Sagasta, with the stars and stripes floating at the head of the procession. The crowd marched to the court house yard and there hung Sagasta in effigy. Speeches were made by a number of students condemning Spain and endorsing the stand taken by congress Tuesday. Then torches were applied to the effigy and it was burned.

A Peanut Causes Death.

KOKOMO, Ind., March 30.—There were two sudden deaths in the family of Rev. Richard Bassett. During the funeral services of a son some one gave a two-year-old granddaughter a peanut to keep her quiet. The nut lodged in the bronchial tube and was drawn into the lung, producing death. Rev. Mr. Bassett represented this county in the state legislature of 1893, being the only colored man in the house.
